

Welcome!

Welcome to the third edition of our 2016 New Life Outreach newsletter. It is our goal to produce this newsletter quarterly, aiming to keep our friends, family and supporters up-to-date as far as what God is doing through New Life Outreach. We are planning on e-mail and on-line distribution for each edition. As we continue producing this newsletter, we may play with the format and change some things up, so if you have any comments or suggestions, please let us know. In the meantime, if you or someone you know would like to be added to our e-mail list, please send us a note at info@newlifeoutreach.us or visit us at www.newlifeoutreach.us.

Transforming Power—The Kingdom of Heaven

Kingdom of Heaven: “The sovereign rule of God, manifested in Christ to defeat His enemies, with a people over whom He reigns, and a realm in which the power of His reign is experienced.” (Vine’s Expository Dictionary)

“The Kingdom—The realm of the unrieved Spirit” (Jack Taylor, 2004)

Just as the early church turned its world upside down, the Kingdom of Heaven contains all the necessary power to turn our world upside down. Jesus brought the Kingdom of Heaven permanently to earth through His incarnation. In reference to Jesus, John the Baptist proclaimed in Matthew 3:2, “...the kingdom of heaven is at hand!” After John’s imprisonment, Jesus spoke of Himself saying, “...Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!” (Matthew 4:17). Since Jesus lives within every born again believer, where we are, the Kingdom of Heaven is. Unmistakably, the plan of God was to send His Kingdom to earth through the birth of His Son, and to make provision for His Kingdom to permanently remain on earth through the multiplication of the Spirit of Christ in a many-membered Body; “...Christ in you, the hope of glory” (Colossians 1:27). The power that raised Christ Jesus from the dead resides in every believer. Our problem then is not the availability of power, but an understanding of the need for the conscious, consistent release of the power of the Kingdom of Heaven into our sphere of influence. The life of Jesus was our example of this release.

In the context of Los Cabos, Mexico, along with the presence of the glory of God in every believer, the Lord sent a special ‘presence of the Holy Spirit’ or anointing to the Los Cabos area through the ministry of Carlos Annacondia. The Lord specifically led us to invite this seasoned saint to Los Cabos, as his ministry is known for changing the spiritual climate of an area—and we believe it did. We are now blessed with a ‘special’ measure of the power of God for the purpose of change. In order for the power of God to be released, however, He needs “a people over whom He reigns.” The Apostle Paul addressed this issue in Romans:

I APPEAL to you therefore, brethren, and beg of you in view of [all] the mercies of God, to make a decisive dedication of your bodies [presenting all your members and faculties] as a living sacrifice, holy (devoted, consecrated) and well pleasing to God, which is your reasonable (rational, intelligent) service and spiritual worship. –Romans 12:1 AMP

In Bible times, a living sacrifice was an animal brought to the temple for sacrifice, but rather than being killed, the animal was used in the service of the temple for the remainder of its life. The Lord needs “living sacrifices” for the end time harvest, not only in Los Cabos but around the world. The type of sacrifice required is a “holy (devoted, consecrated)” sacrifice, and just in case you think the Lord is asking too much, one common teaching for “your reasonable service” is, “it’s the least you can do!”

The Transformation of the Mind

Do not be conformed to this world (this age), [fashioned after and adapted to its external, superficial customs], but be transformed (changed) by the [entire] renewal of your mind [by its new ideals and its new attitude], so that you may prove [for yourselves] what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God, even the thing which is good and acceptable and perfect [in His sight for you]. –Romans 12:2 AMP

The power to transform the world in which we live was provided over two thousand years ago, but there is great need for the renewal of the minds of Christians around the world; this includes leaders within the church, as well as the majority of Christians. The Body of Christ needs to start thinking God’s thoughts.

First of all, the Body of Christ needs a revelation of God’s plan for the time in which we live. He has a plan for a great end time harvest of souls and for His Kingdom to come and His will to be done on earth as it is in heaven. When asked how they should pray, Jesus taught His disciples to pray what is commonly called, “The Lord’s Prayer.”

“Pray, then, in this way: ‘Our Father who is in heaven, Hallowed be Your name. ‘Your kingdom come. Your will be done, On earth as it is in heaven.

–Matthew 6:9-10

We will not be able to cooperate fully with God or understand what He is doing in our lives if we live our lives mainly from preconceived ideas we have of what God is going to do. Now, more than ever, we must be studying the Bible daily, allowing it to be the living word that it is, and then be flexible enough to let God show us what might possibly be new understanding of His never-changing word. We also need a new commitment (as living sacrifices) to walk as Jesus walked every day.

Transformation of the Mind - Mexico

In Los Cabos, as well as in all of Mexico, there is a crisis for the need of the basic virtues of the Bible to be taught; the biblical values America was founded on. Please do not fool yourself into believing that America flourished because of her knowledge, abilities and excellence, while the struggling, developing country to the south of America is in the state it is because of its corruption. The corruption in Mexico is the fruit of its non-Christian heritage.

The main reason for America’s success is that our country was founded in order to have the freedom to worship the One True God without government interference. America was dedicated to God by the founding fathers. The primers in the young nation's schools used scripture for reading practice and the students were taught the values and life principles of the Bible. These values formed the excellence of character in America's people that produced a harvest of greatness—from the sowing of good seed. On the other hand, for more than fifty years, America has lost total sight of its purpose for existence, as the country has steadily forsaken the One True God. Many Americans have no idea what scripture says, let alone have the desire to live by the truth of God's word. America now has a crisis of lack of character as a result of her rapid spiritual decline.

Now let's consider Mexico. We don't have the time or space for a thorough study of the history of religion in Mexico, but we do need to understand some of its religious heritage. One of the main groups of indigenous people in Mexico was the Aztecs, followed by the Mayans. With no biblical heritage, this was a foundation of the worship of birds, animals, and idols, and of course, Satan encouraged their beliefs by making sure they saw power and/or received results for their pagan rituals and superstitious practices. There are groups in Mexico who still unashamedly follow this heritage. Mexico was then invaded and settled by France, Spain and numerous other European countries (including Dutch pirates in Los Cabos). These settlers came to Mexico for the vast supply of natural resources. The countries that came also brought their own mixture of religion and ceremony with them.

This heritage of paganism, superstition and mixture of religious beliefs, without strong biblical values, produced a weak foundation in Mexico. Even among the rich and noble, there are few who are near to the biblical standard of Psalm 15:

O LORD, who may abide in Your tent? Who may dwell on Your holy hill? He who walks with integrity, and works righteousness, And speaks truth in his heart. He does not slander with his tongue, Nor does evil to his neighbor; Nor takes up a reproach against his friend; In whose eyes a reprobate is despised, But who honors those who fear the LORD; He swears to his own hurt and does not change; —Psalm 15:1-4

When the Bible is not the foundation for any person or civilization, self-centeredness is the result. This has been the case in Mexico, which has led to a mindset of self-preservation by the poor and the weak and to a lifestyle of domination by those with power and wealth. If lying or dishonest dealings are necessary to achieve a desired goal, these are acceptable for success and are actually a way of life.

In no way are we insulting the people whom we love, but this a description of much of the Mexican population from their own people. This is a mindset, even among Mexican believers, which must be renewed by the teaching of biblical principles, along with the purifying fire of the Holy Spirit. Mexico needs the foundation they were never given—the foundation that much of America has now rejected!

This brings us to Avanza sin Tranza. This program, piloted in Ciudad Juarez, focuses on the reprogramming of the minds of the Mexican population in every sector of society. Although it was created for Juarez, the biblically-based initiative, led by a seasoned, powerful man of God, is now spreading throughout Mexico, and is a necessity in Los Cabos (Please read further for our article on Avanza sin Tranza). Without a change in Mexico's foundation, all else will be built on "sinking sand."

The transforming of the mind is the next foundational step in the transformation of Los Cabos. In order for the "good and acceptable and perfect will of God" to come forth in our area, the minds of the Mexican population, including many Christians, must be renewed to biblical values.

Responding to the 'Cry of His People'

From the beginning of our assignment from the Lord—to gather the churches and pastors of Los Cabos together—we have had a deep burden for brothers and sisters in the Catholic churches in Mexico. Part of the original declaration the Lord gave us to speak over

Los Cabos was, “He has heard the cry of His people and He is sending His Holy Spirit to Los Cabos for a special visitation.” Certainly the born again brothers and sisters in the Catholic churches of Los Cabos are longing for this visitation!

When we first moved to Los Cabos, we lived in the Pueblo of Playita, which is next to San Jose del Cabo. Playita has its own Catholic mission and we were blessed, several years ago, to have attended one of their Saturday evening masses with our former landlords, Gary and Alecia Hartman. The priest sang choruses as he strummed his guitar and during his teaching, he clearly presented an invitation to invite Jesus into our lives. That same mission had also displayed a vinyl banner from a former event. The banner had a picture of Jesus, along with words encouraging the reader to a relationship with Him.

One morning, while out walking, we were drawn to the Mission by what sounded like passionate Spanish prayer. Sure enough, that local mission had a prayer group that met that morning. With hands raised high, they prayed over the children, youth and other needs of the pueblo.

Within the last two years, we were in the Burger King in San Jose and a group of ladies were there with printed t-shirts proclaiming, “Charismatic Catholic...” As we talked with them, they told us they were part of a Charismatic Catholic Church in the San Jose area, but we had no idea where.

For those of you who might not know, one of our ministries for Cabo English Church is greeting at the front door. A few months ago, Richard was talking to Ron Welsh, a brother from the Great Lakes area. Ron just happened to mention that he and his wife were friends with a charismatic Catholic priest and that this brother was going to be in Cabo in June to spend some vacation time with them. Richard shared that we had met a powerful charismatic Catholic priest at two different Transform our World Conferences and were intending, at the right time, to invite him to minister in Cabo. The two men then realized they were talking about the same brother, Father Dimitri Sala, and that he was going to be in Los Cabos June 13-15 at the Welsh’s Cabo home. (<http://www.stainedglasscurtain.com/about-fr-dimitri-sala.html>)

com/about-fr-dimitri-sala.html)

After corresponding with Father Dimitri and Ron Welsh, Father Dimitri asked Ron if he would have us connect him with the local Charismatic Church we knew. The rest of the story is that we had no idea where the Charismatic Catholics worshiped, let alone if there was a church. The following morning, during my devotions, I asked the Lord where to find the Charismatic Catholics (I was challenged by one of my devotionals a few months earlier to get in the habit of asking the Lord questions and expecting Him to answer); and that morning He did answer and gave me directions. His directions sent me to the little mission in Playita (which is now around forty minutes away), which rarely has anyone at it. That morning there was a brother who was there working on their new building expansion. When I asked about the Charismatic Catholics, his eyes immediately lit up and he told me they would be meeting that night at 7:00 p.m. and which mission they would be at. He then called a “Padre” and told him someone was trying to find them.

The very Monday before, while in the San Jose square for “Mondays in the Marketplace,” both Richard and I were impressed with a need to go into the old San Jose Mission, in the center of town, to pray. As I was praying, the Lord impressed upon me to ask for a “Reformation of the Catholic Church.” This was just before our first visit to the Charismatic Catholic Church in San Jose.

Two days after our “prayer session” in the San Jose Mission, we went to the Charismatic Catholic Church service for the first time. They were exuberant in their worship, worshiped for almost two hours, and were passionate in their relationship with the Lord Jesus. People were prayed for, for healing and other needs, testimonies were given, and, at the end, others were encouraged to come to the altar to invite Jesus into their hearts.

The lay leaders of the church wanted to know how we found their church and why we wanted to fellowship with them. When I told them, being that they believe in the power and presence of the Holy Spirit, they didn’t think it strange, but rejoiced!

We, along with Father Dimitri, ended up meeting with the priest of the area. Father Dimitri was able to talk with him for an extended period of time and provided him with information to share with the other priests in the region. We look forward to what God is doing in the hearts of our catholic brothers and sisters!

The amazing thing is, we weren't ready financially to be able to bring Father Dimitri to the area, but the Lord initiated it all, from Ron Welsh telling Father Dimitri we knew of a Charismatic Catholic Church in the area, to Father Dimitri asking if he could speak with the Charismatic Catholics, to the Lord sending me to the right place at the exact right time to get the information!

Mondays in the Marketplace

We know the Lord knows what He is doing. We often don't know what He is up to, though, and must walk by faith. His ways are so much higher than ours that even when we finally get a glimpse of the "finished picture," we are still absolutely amazed at how He brought it to pass. This is the case with what the Lord is just beginning to unfold on Monday mornings in the San Jose del Cabo town plaza.

Let me regress for a moment for a brief explanation of the Annacondia Crusade's finances as the framework for this blog. The Lord clearly did not allow the crusade to be well funded in advance. One time, when I was discussing this issue with Him, He spoke to my heart, "I am withholding my provision for a reason." This brought comfort for a season, but expenses still had to be paid, and we were past “the point of no return.”

This brings us to how the Lord provided the majority of what was needed for the crusade. Through a series of divinely-woven appointments, the new Mayor (Presidente) of the Municipality of Los Cabos (San Jose del Cabo and Cabo San Lucas combined) had promised Pastor Carlos Maciel (who had known him for over ten years) that he would provide the municipalities’ sound, light, and stage equipment for the crusade if he were elected—and he fulfilled his promise and more! However, the necessary, bureaucratic format for the requisition of the items, as well as scheduling the delivery to the crusade site—from several different departments of the municipality—required numerous visits by Pastor Carlos to the municipality offices in San Jose del Cabo. In fact, he just recently shared that during the two weeks leading up to the crusade, he was there every morning by 8:00 a.m.

The Lord was working for our good, according to His plan. If we had had the provision for the projected crusade budget in the bank, we would have thanked God for His provision and signed the contract for the goods. Instead, we, along with Pastor Carlos, had to continue going forward step-by-step, waiting on the Lord, and at the end we received great favor. Since Pastor Carlos had to go to so many departments, so many times in order to talk to so many heads of the different departments, the Lord was already building relationships with these government administrators.

This brings us to “Mondays in the Marketplace.” In Mexico, every government body, including schools, meet in their courtyards, recite their powerful pledge of allegiance (including God), sing their national anthem, and proudly raise their flag. This ceremony begins at approximately 8:00 a.m. every Monday morning in the government municipality courtyard in San Jose. The entire government staff is present and open to conversation. The mayor, himself, arrives for this event and is open to greeting people before the ceremony, as well as spending time with his constituents for a brief time afterwards, in order to hear appeals from the people he is there to serve.

Pastor Carlos, Isidoro (our friend and a longtime friend of Mayor Arturo), Richard, and I are hopping out of bed early every Monday morning for the drive to San Jose with the excitement of what the Lord is going to do that morning! Our small group is looking forward to continuing the relationships that Pastor Carlos has started. Our goal as marketplace ministers is also to serve, love on, and pray for people, whenever the opportunity arises, and we have already had significant opportunities.

We already have stories of Monday mornings that will have to be told another time, but we absolutely know that what the Lord is just beginning to do on Monday mornings is the result of His restraint on the funding for the crusade. We were feeling our discomfort, but He was looking at His big plan – our future!

Avanza sin Tranza

Avanza sin Tranza was piloted in Ciudad Juarez with such great success that government officials asked for the program to be expanded beyond just law enforcement. For a brief account of the story of this program in Ciudad Juarez, click on the link shown here: www.transformourworld.org/en/blogs/14938-thriving-without-bribes-the-juarez-miracle-part-2

All of the police forces in Mexico have had mandatory lie detector testing, including questions regarding bribes and honesty. The Los Cabos police force ranked very high as one of the most corrupt police forces in Mexico. Accepting bribes has become an accepted way of life and, for many, thought to be necessary to survive. It is a pivotal strategy for a breakthrough in Los Cabos, for governmental corruption and bribes to turnaround—and we know our new administration, headed by Presidente (mayor) Arturo de la Rosa, is the administration that can do the job!

Daniel Valles, who run the program, was with us from June 15-21. Check out the following articles for more on his visit to Los Cabos.

Daniel Valles with Avanza Sin Tranza Visits Los Cabos

Daniel and Lizy Valles with Avanza sin Tranza arrived from Ciudad Juarez, via Mexico City, after a delayed flight, at 2:00 a.m. on June 16. Pastor Carlos Maciel requested the guests speak at his church, Cristo es el Camino, the evening they flew in. The little church in the barrios of Cabo San Lucas was full of our precious friends and Daniel is a seasoned, captivating orator. He gave a transformational message of affecting the world around you with the Christ within you. There were many touched with the message. As he walked through the aisles and rows, praying for the people, hearts were deeply touched and impartations received.

A meeting was scheduled for the next day with the Deputy Mayor of the Municipality of Los Cabos, who presides over Cabo San Lucas, along with the heads of his departments, including the Chief of Police. We were very excited about this opportunity, but the meeting was cancelled due to a meeting with Mayor Arturo de la Rosa in San Jose del Cabo. Another opportunity didn't present itself in the time Daniel was with us, but we continue to pray for another opportunity at a future visit. The chance to personally share the Avanza sin Tranza program with Mayor Arturo also did not materialize as we had expected. We had already given introductory packets to both officials and are praying they will see the value and need for the initiative in their municipalities.

Daniel and Lizy were a joy to work with and we look forward to future visits with them as they travel to Los Cabos for the training and organization of the Avanza sin Tranza initiative!

Adonai Messianic Jewish Community Congregation Hosts Valles

Pastor Javier and his Messianic Jewish Community Congregation had become dear friends of ours in the early stages of the Carlos Annacondia Crusade, through divine appointment. Pastor Javier had been involved on a committee during another Carlos Annacondia Crusade and was excited that such a man of God was coming to Los Cabos. Pastor Javier had also witnessed the transformational move of God in Almolonga, Guatemala years before, including having been a personal witness of the gigantic vegetables that came forth as the atmosphere of Heaven touched the earth in that move of God. We never had to talk him into believing what God intends to do in Los Cabos!

When we called to see if Daniel could preach on Saturday, June 18, at the 7:00 p.m. Messianic Shabbat, Pastor Javier immediately said, 'yes.' We were also treated to being a part of our first bar mitzvah that evening. The event was held for a precious young man named Carlos. Daniel didn't start preaching until around 9:00 p.m., but he gave it all he had. The congregation listened intently as he preached on the Kingdom of God being within us.

The congregation was so thankful he came. We also loved being with this likeminded, precious pastor and his congregation. It was a night to remember!

Daniel Valles... The Lord's Connections

The Lord made some amazing connections for Daniel, ourselves, and in laying the groundwork for transformation in Los Cabos during the time Daniel was with us.

Before Daniel arrived, we were blessed to have Father Dimitri Sala, one of Transform Our World's teaching staff, in town for "vacation," as the guest of Ron and Nita Welsh from Michigan. Unbeknownst to us, Daniel had been trying to contact Dimitri without success. When Dimitri found out Daniel was coming in, just hours before Dimitri was to fly out, he asked if we could arrange for him and Daniel to have a chance to spend a window of time together. The Lord's first connection then, was for Daniel to have a chance to meet with Dimitri—totally unplanned by either of them. Of course, this meeting was special for us as well, since Dimitri's ministry to the precious Catholic population, and Daniel's ministry of Avanza sin Tranza (changing the moral fiber of not only Los Cabos, but Mexico), are two of the main ministries we knew were part of our next steps in transformation, following the Annacondia Crusade.

The next divine appointment was even more remarkable and came to light as we were showing Daniel and his wife, Lizy, around Los Cabos. We were sharing what a blessing the Carlos Ungson family had been to us during the many meetings and visits the Annacondia Crusade necessitated. It was then that Daniel said, "Ungson? I think that's the name of the family that gave us shelter thirty-eight years ago when we first came to Cabo San Lucas on our honeymoon." Daniel then shared how they had driven from La Paz on their honeymoon to see Cabo San Lucas. Little did they know there were no hotels in Cabo San Lucas. They were only able to find a little Methodist Church. In desperation, they knocked on the door and a wonderful Christian couple fed them and let them spend the night there.

Daniel asked if they could possibly see if the Ungsons we knew were the same family that had cared for them thirty-eight years ago. We were able to make the connection with the Ungsons and they were indeed the couple that had cared for Daniel and Lizy! In fact, the little Methodist church is now the family real estate office next door to their hotel. What a precious reunion it was! In a later conversation, Daniel shared about Avanza sin Tranza with Mr. Ungson. He lit up with the connections he has in Los Cabos and will be making contacts to help bring the initiative to various sectors of society in Los Cabos! What a divine appointment—thirty-eight years in the making—and what a testimony to the Ungson's continued response to the Holy Spirit and His leading!

God continued to show Himself strong in making the connections we will need for the transformation process. The Monday before Daniel flew into Los Cabos, he was in Mexico City as a journalist, which is part of his calling. He was testifying against the gay and lesbian marriage bill that Mexican President Pena Nieto just proposed to the legislature for legalization. Of all the people present in Mexico City, Daniel met a young lawyer, who is also a pastor and was testifying, as well. Daniel was so drawn to this pastor/lawyer that he made a point of mentioning this to us early in the visit. The brother Daniel met in Mexico City was Pastor Jorge Pasalagua (pictured here). For those of you who have followed our website for any length of time, Pastor Pasalagua, along with his church Amistad Cristiano in La Paz, was one of the first photos on our “friends of the ministry” page. We only replaced that page last year with the Carlos Annocondia Crusade page.

We first met Pastor Pasalagua in 2011, while driving back to Michigan from a two and a half month mission trip where we worked on Pastor Carlos Maciel’s parsonage and first church. We could not find our hotel in La Paz. From the highway, we could see a smaller, but nice church with its lights on, on a Saturday night. We drove to the church to ask for directions, but in addition to directions, we also found a wonderful pastor, family, and congregation. They were immediately so precious in spirit that we decided to go to their church the next day. We were greatly blessed at how likeminded their teaching was to our own, and had instant camaraderie.

It ended up being another year and a half before we were able to move to Los Cabos and of course, we were instantly busy. Since that time, Pastor Pasalagua has begun an Amistad Cristiano church plant in Cabo San Lucas, where he saw us one Sunday as he was driving by Cabo Church, where we were out front greeting. He told us the location of the church, but we never really found it and had never been able to visit it. We were greatly blessed for the connection between Pastor Pasalagua and Daniel. We visited the church plant on the Sunday evening when Daniel was with us. It was a blessing to fellowship with Pastor Jorge and his wife after the service. We do not know the totality of this divine connection, but we know it was not by chance and we are grateful for it!

Our last connection during Daniel’s visit was a continuation of Saturday night with the Messianic Congregation. Pastor Javier Vega shared with Daniel that one of their congregations is influential in the hotel industry and a few of the leaders of the industry are part of his congregation. If possible, they wanted Daniel to present Avanza sin Tranza to them during this first trip. Mr. Ungson graciously offered the veranda of Casa Bella for the meeting and Daniel was able to share the necessity and power of this initiative in Mexico (as well as in other parts of the world). The Messianic leaders were deeply impressed and are preparing to bring the program to their hotel(s) as soon as the end of this August, in order to train their hotel employees in the biblical values, which are the core of the program’s material!

I would just like to challenge all of you to discuss the plans you have for your life, your business and your sphere of influence with the Lord. Spend more time with him alone and listen to what He has to say. If you are already accustomed to doing this, ask the Lord for more revelation and more understanding. He delights in sharing the rule of His Kingdom on earth with Sons and Daughters who delight to do His will. You will personally never regret your new way of life! Only He can make such divine appointments! Only you can walk in them when He leads!

New Life Transformation The Revival of the Heart... The Transformation of a Country

We were greatly blessed to have many individuals and ministries step up and help support the Carlos Annacondia crusade held in April of this year. As we look to the next step in the revival and transformation of Los Cabos, though, we find ourselves once again in need of ministry partners. We continue to seek on-going support for both ourselves, as well as for transformation efforts. That's where the New Life Transformation Fund comes in. The goal of this fund is to have Kingdom resources available to bring in ministries and speakers, as well as pay for transformation endeavors. Please consider...

- Supporting us monthly
- Donating to the New Life Transformation Fund – Making Transformation Possible in Los Cabos
- Supporting other on-going Los Cabos mission projects

We have put together a half-page flyer highlighting the transformation fund. The bottom half (shown to the right) can be printed on the back of the flyer, providing New Life Outreach background information. If you would please consider distributing these flyers or inserting them into your bulletins, we would greatly appreciate it. If you would prefer a high-resolution flyer laid out two per page, please e-mail us at rhonda@newlifeoutreach.us.

Thank You again for your continued support and prayers. God is doing a mighty work in Los Cabos. We are blessed to be a part of what He is doing!

New Life Outreach is a Christian, non-profit organization currently operating in Los Cabos, Mexico. Back in 2010, Co-directors Richard and Rhonda Mead felt led to attend a conference in Los Cabos. While there, they met Bob Bradbury, who had been called to bring revival to the area. After spending much time in prayer, Richard and Rhonda felt God leading them to revival for the area, as well. After his passing, they picked up Bradbury's mantle and began the move to Los Cabos, praying for revival, and beginning the leg work toward the transformation of not only a city, but a nation.

Richard and Rhonda were able to initiate and oversee a Carlos Annacondia Crusade in April 2016. Current efforts include affiliation with Transform Our World, a ministry led by Ed Silviso that focuses on the complete transformation of an area: business, government, and education - bringing the Kingdom of God to every sphere of life. The Meads are also working closely with Daniel Valles and Avanza Sin Tranza – Thrive without Bribes – an initiative that works with government, law enforcement, education, hospitality, businesses, and churches to thrive by living/operating according to righteous principals. The program has been a huge success in Juarez, MX and they look forward to the program's initiation in Los Cabos in the fall of 2016.

In addition to these transformation initiatives, Richard and Rhonda work with local pastors, churches, and ministries, loving the people on a daily basis and spreading the message of God's love and His redeeming grace.
